v.

SAMUEL STEPHEN EALY,

Defendant.

Case No. 1:00CR00104-002

OPINION AND ORDER

JUDGE JAMES P. JONES

The defendant, previously sentenced by this Court, has filed a Motion to Cancel Liability for Fine, arguing that his liability for the fine imposed has expired. The Government has responded, contending that (1) by statute, 18 U.S.C. § 3613(b), his fine has not expired; (2) his motion is moot, since he has paid his fine; and (3) this Court lacks authority to modify or remit the fine because the Government has not petitioned the Court to do so.

After a careful review of the issues, I agree with the Government, at least as to points (1) and (2). Accordingly, it is ORDERED that the motion, ECF No. 1392, is DENIED.
